

I am writing to urge you to begin studying the setup of communication towers as they affect migrating birds. Perhaps towers could be constructed to lessen deaths of migratory birds--this would involve checking into migratory patterns. For right now, please do what you can to follow the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service recommendations. Thank you.